

Acceptance of Contractual Agreement:

The following Terms of Service ("TOS," "Terms" or "Agreement") apply to your use of our website and all services, features and/or content provided by Alphabet Hosting ("Alphabet Hosting," "us," "our"). By purchasing one or more Services from Alphabet Hosting, you declare that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by this TOS. The latest version of our TOS is always available on the Alphabet Hosting website. It is essential that you read this TOS prior to purchasing any Service(s) from Alphabet Hosting

Customer & Resellers Agreement:

The TOS apply to all Services provided by Alphabet Hosting to you throughout the entire Term or Renewal Term. All customers & Resellers should agree on all terms and conditions stated prior to their signing up for any of the hosting plans and services mentioned on Alphabet Hosting. You shall agree to use only licensed and legal third party softwares in connection with your use of our services. Alphabet Hosting reserves the right to suspend or cancel a customer's access to any or all services provided, at any time, or when Alphabet Hosting decides that the account has been inappropriately used or otherwise.

Shared Hosting Policies

Shared Hosting Packages You are not allowed to use the hosting for Backup Storage, File Hosting/File Sharing/Image Hosting, You are not allowed to Store any Personal Zip files or backup of your files as an Zip in the server. The hosting should contains only the Files used by the Website scripts. In Shared/Reseller/Master/Alpha Environment You are not allowed to Keep Mails more than Ram Which is Allocated space per cPanel. If you need space for Email You can upgrade your VPS or Other.

Unlimited Disk Space & Bandwidth

Unlimited disk space and bandwidth means there is no set limits on our packages. Alphabet Hosting want you to have the resources you need to build your site without any limits. But, however, we do need to make sure we continue to provide a full active service to all our customers. As such we do require all customers to be fully compliant with our Fair Usage Policy and Terms and Conditions. Customers on unlimited hosting packages this includes but not limited to shared hosting packages. As a customer of Alphabet Hosting you agree to be subject to the following fair usage policy: The account will be primarily used for the purposes of web hosting. Unacceptable use include, but are not limited to, large file storage and making downloads of large files such as but not limited to media files, zipped folders and programme files.

File downloads are permitted, but only in the context of a functioning website. The hosting account may not cause problems with the performance of other hosting accounts hosted on the same server by making excessive demands on the resources of the server. This includes, but is not limited to, the CPU usage required to perform data processing on the account for the purposes of taking backups and other administrative tasks as well as the CPU usage required to actually serve the site on the hosting account. As a customer, you agree that Alphabet Hosting will be determining whether an infringement of this 'fair use' the policy has occurred. Wherever possible, Alphabet Hosting will propose alternative hosting arrangements should an infringement of this policy occur. These may include but are not limited to, moving to a hosting plan with quoted disk space and bandwidth limits. If we identify an account that is not in compliance with our Fair Usage Policy or that has the potential to negatively impact the performance of our server, we will be required to temporarily suspend the account. If this happens we will work with the customer in order to resolve the issue as quickly as possible. Alphabet Hosting reserves the right to revise its policies at any time without notice. Before placing an order please read our terms/privacy policy/refund policy. k) We don't offer SSH/Shell access to any users in Shared Environment in Any case. If you are looking for SSH Access you can consider taking VPS/Dedicated
